DEDICATION

The 1958 Tower is dedicated to Dr. Frank W. Grube, Chairman of the English Department. Dr. Grube has devoted immeasurable time and effort to promoting the interests of Northwest Missouri State College. This friendly, vigorous man is highly regarded by students and faculty alike because of his energetic, enthusiastic personality.

In addition to his classroom responsibilities, Dr. Grube has created a great deal of interest in tennis on this campus. Largely due to his coaching ability, the College tennis team is the defending champion in the Conference. Dr. Grube has also served as literary advisor to the Tower for the past eight years. His cooperation and guidance have added much to the efficiency of the Staff. It is with a sincere sense of gratitude and appreciation for his many contributions to this College that the Tower Staff dedicates the 1958 Tower to Dr. Grube.

THE PRESIDENT

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

What is the NORTHWEST MISSOURI STATE COLLEGE?

Legally it is a state supported teachers college. Physically it is a campus of eighty acres, a number of buildings, a college farm of some seventy acres . . . all valued at nearly seven million dollars. But the College is more than these legal and physical things. It is a community of varied people who are concerned with higher education in northwest Missouri. You, the students, are among those people who make up the Northwest Missouri State College. In a very real sense YOU are the college. What you do and what you become reflect the Northwest Missouri State College. You as individuals are a most important part of the answer to my question: What is the Northwest Missouri State College? I am proud of each one and of the part you take in the daily program of the college. I believe you will hold high the ideals of your college.

It is men; it is women, who are truly The Northwest Missouri State College.

MEN'S INTRAMURAL COUNCIL

The Men's Intramural Council, composed of Jim Tussey, Dick Hargrave, Walter Maris, Gene Johnson, Paul Kerber, and Dr. H. D. Peterson, was responsible for the planning of a highly competitive intramural sports program this year.

The season was initiated by the singles tennis tournament in which thirty-two men participated. After many hard fought matches, Marvin Murphy came out on top, with Merle Sorenson taking second place.

Touch football was next on the program. Fourteen teams took part in this activity, and the Sig Tans and Phi Sigs were the winning teams.

Twenty-eight teams entered the basketball intramurals, and there were some close, exciting games before the season ended.

Wrestling was the final sport on the intramural scene. A great deal of interest was shown in the wrestling tournament which elimaxed this sport.

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL

The Inter-Fraternity Council, co-ordinator of the activities of the three National Greek Social Fraternities on campus, again achieved its purposes of regulating the spirit of friendly rivalry among the fraternities, and promoting fraternity life on campus.

The Council had charge of setting the dates for pledging and rushing, and began a revision of the rushing section of the Inter-Fraternity Constitution. Dick Dinkel, Don Bennett, Dave Hansen, and Don Pierpoint served on the constitutional revision committee.

In the spring, the Council, along with the Pan Hellenic Council, sponsored the annual All Greek Dance. Dance committee members were Paul White, Bob K. James, Ron Searey, and Wayne Jackson.

PHI SIGMA EPSILON

Phi Sigma Epsilon reached a new height in campus recognition this year beginning with the election of Jerry Overton as Student Body President.

Shortly after the annual Back-to-School-Picnic, Nu Chapter put a plan for a new and larger chapter room into action. The new headquarters has three times more floor space than the old location. These new facilities will adequately handle the fraternity's increasing membership which now totals forty-one active members.

Phi Sigma Epsilon entered Rush Week by holding its first smoker in the new chapter room on October 8th for prospective pledges. Entertainment was furnished by the sister sorority, Sigma Sigma Sigma. Seventeen men chose Phi Sigma Epsilon. Captained by Odis Cate, these men served a faithful pledgeship and successfully carried out their duties on Hell Night, which was held on December 15th.

With the co-operative effort of the fraternity, Phi Sigma Epsilon managed to contribute to the Homecoming activities four highly acclaimed first-prize winning entries, including the Variety Show skit and the jalopy entry.

Some of the social events which were most prominent during the year were the annual Christmas Ball, the Phi Sig Rumble, the Orchid Ball, and the ever popular Phi Sig Frolics. Other functions were the many informal dances and get-togethers long to be remembered by Nu Chapter.

Fun was mixed with more serious moments, particularly the fraternity pinnings at the dorm. Congratulations went to: Ron Searcy, Bob K. James, Max Voggesser, and Bob W. James.

Theta Chapter of Sigma Tau Gamma, under the direction of President Don Pierpoint, began the year with a well-organized rush program from which twenty-eight men were pledged.

Homecoming activities, always of major importance to the Taus, were somewhat marred by the burning of the Sig Tau beauty float, "Trumpeting to Victory." However, the fraternity was strongly represented in other events, which netted a tie for second place in overall Homecoming participation.

Sigma Tau Gamma was also well represented in all varsity sports, the Student Senate, Union Board, and class offices. Wayne Jackson and Gary Williams served as Presidents of the Senior class and the Freshman class respectively.

A fraternity dream became a reality this year, when construction was started on a fraternity house. The direction of this project was carried out under the able leadership of second semester President, Walter Ferguson.

Social functions are always a major item on the agenda. The 1957 Rose Dance was held at the Elks Club. Miss Delivee Cramer, Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority, was crowned Rose Queen. Curtis Thomas was awarded the Outstanding Tau and Scholarship award for the year.

In addition to the spring highlight, many informal functions were held.

The Taus, always strong in intramural activity, once again provided top flight intramural competition.

Tau Kappa Epsilon began its fourth year on campus with a record thirty-four man pledge class obtained under the able leadership of Rush Chairman Dave Hansen.

For the second year in a row, the TEKES walked away with the Parade Participation Trophy. Led by Paul White, Homecoming Co-Chairman, the TEKES were awarded a second place prize for their humor float, and beauty float, a third place prize in house decorations and a fourth place in the Homecoming Variety Show.

T.K.E. is very proud that it was able to retire the scholarship trophy to the chapter trophy case after winning it for the third straight year.

Delta Nu's new and much expanded social program made its debut under the leadership of Bill Merrick. The Christmas Dinner Dance shone forth in all its glory as the chapter made an all out effort in preparation for the event.

Yuletide also brought with it the heartwarming experience of the annual TEKE orphan's party. The walls of Quad 4 resounded with the shouts and laughter of twenty-four orphan boys and girls that Sunday morning and afternoon in December.

Richard Dinkel served as president of Tau Kappa Epsilon this year; Joe Ochoa, Keeper of the Grades; Paul White, Vice-President; and Ed Farquhar, Treasurer. Bill Morse and Larry Brown represented the fraternity on the Student Senate.

The spring season was highlighted by the TEKE Sweetheart Dance in early May, which was another social success in the chapter's long line of victories.

The members of the Industrial Arts Club, under the supervision of President Clifford Dahl, used their designing skill and initiative to good advantage in the construction of their Homecoming beauty float, "We'll Win By Galley." Their efforts were fittingly rewarded when the thirty foot long "ship," manned by eight I.A. galley slaves, received first place in beauty floats.

Another highlight of Industrial Arts Club activities was the trip to Kansas City to visit the Elfeldt Manufacturing Company and Sheffield Steel.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA

Alpha Phi Omega is a fraternity which has as its major goal service to the student body and faculty, service to youth and community, service to members of the fraternity, and service to the nation as participating citizens. The prerequisite for membership is that the person must have been actively engaged in the scout movement at some time during his life.

The service projects of the organization have included construction of a sign at the college entrance, identification markers for each of the buildings on campus, a faculty directory in the administration building, placing a public address system in the Bearcat Den, and assisting a physically handicapped student around campus.

The students who guided the fraternity during the spring semester were: Dan Sullivan, President; Jim McIntyre, Vice-President; Jerald Barten, Secretary; Eddie Jones, Treasurer; and Tom Adams, Reporter.

Homecoming was the first major item on the Ag Club's schedule of activities. Besides the annual alumni coffee hour, the Ag Club produced a first prize winning humor float, "The Mules Can Be Skinned."

Several members of the club distinguished themselves in livestock judging contests throughout the year. Melvin Karr, Vance Whitehill, Dick Smith, Bob Wade, and Larry Kensinger represented Northwest Missouri State at the Oklahoma City Intercollegiate Livestock Judging contest. Melvin Karr proved his judging ability by winning the coveted Golden Bull. Dick Smith earned the Dannen Achievement Award. These and other awards were presented at the Father and Son Award Banquet.

"M" CLUB

The "M" Club, NWMSC's organization of men who have been awarded a letter in a varsity sport, was led in the 1957-58 season by President Dick Powell.

Green jackets denoting Club members were very much in evidence at Kangaroo Courts initiating freshmen. The climax of these sessions, Walkout Day, was a huge success largely due to the efforts of the "men in green."

As is the annual custom, Club members entertained their fathers at the "Dad's Night" football game against Rolla.

Among the Club's projects for the year were the supervision of printing and selling football programs, and the operation of the concession stand at sports events. "M" Club members also acted as hosts to high school teams at basketball tournaments in the college gym, and at the high school track meet in the spring.

The final event of the year for members of the organization was the end-of-the-year picnic held in the spring.

The north dining room of the Union building was again the scene of the meetings of Veterans' Club sponsored by Dr. Charles Koerble.

For the third consecutive year, members of Veterans' Club provided the color guard for Homecoming festivities. The men who made up the guard were Kenneth Hatten, Jerry Smiley, Paul Ellison, Joe Mewhirter, Bill Walters, Lyle Ratashak, Gene Johnson, and Lloyd Mather.

The 1957-58 officers of the organization were Lloyd Mather, President; Paul Ellison, Vice-President; Bill Walter, Treasurer; Lyle Ratashak, Sergeant-at-arms; and Gene Johnson, Intramural Director.

PAN HELLENIC COUNCIL

The nationally affiliated Pan Hellenic Council began its work with the Fall rush week. The Council sponsored a tea at which rushees were entertained by sorority members. Following the tea, Rush Week began in earnest with sessions ranging from the Jailhouse, Treasure Island, and the Mardi Gras, to much more formal parties. At the end of the hectic week, fifty-five girls decided to pledge a sorority.

For the sixth consecutive year, Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority was the winner of the scholarship cup given by the Council on the basis of overall grade point average of the sorority members.

Jo Parent proved a very able leader of the Pan Hellenic Council in the supervision of inter-sorority activities to promote scholarship and good will among the sororities.

WOMEN'S INTRAMURAL COUNCIL

Barbara Benning and Betty Heflin, co-chairmen of the Women's Intramural Council, planned a varied program of recreational activities for the women students on campus.

For the third consecutive year the Red Racers were the winners of the round robin basketball tournament set up by Betty Heflin. Other teams entered were Alpha Sigma Alpha, Blue Racers, Delta Zeta, PEM Club, and Sigma Sigma Sigma.

Mary Inez Howland, bowling chairman, planned the tournament for the eight teams entered. The Alphas were represented with three teams, the Tri Sigs entered two teams, and Delta Zeta, PEM Club, and Ten Pins entered one team each.

Volleyball was featured as the spring activity.

Miss Kathryn Riddle is the faculty sponsor of the Council, and Miss Bonnie Magill serves as advisor.

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA

Norma Long, Jo Goeders, Ann Schilling, Bonnie Warner, and Carol Gamble were the "Jailers in charge" as the Alpha Sigma Alphas opened the year with a "Jailhouse" informal rush party. The formal rush party was a fitting climax to the end of Rush Week, and 15 pledges were added to the roll.

The Alphas were led in their Homecoming activities by President Beverly Murphy, who was Co-Chairman of the entire Homecoming festivities, and the Alpha's lovely candidate for Homecoming Queen. A beauty float, "Blooming to Victory," and the house decoration entry, "Don't Clown Around with the Bearcats," were the Alpha's contributions to Homecoming.

Many Alphas were active in campus affairs: Beverly Murphy, Gaye Laughery, and Carol Shores, Cheerleaders; Janice Wilkinson, dramatic productions; Carol Gamble, President of Kappa Pi; Margie O'Connor, President of Pem Club and Secretary of Dance Club; Donna Anderson, President of Dance Club; Sue Canon, Vice-President of Dance Club; and Beverly Murphy, Secretary of Panhellenic Council, and Spirit of Christmas.

Other events of the year include Walkout Day, Fun Week, Sweetheart Dance, Spring Formal, and the Parent's Picnic.

Epsilon Rho Chapter of Delta Zeta sorority began its second year on this campus with the "Entering of Pirate Land," at the informal rush party. Rush Week ended with the formal rush party, and found twenty-one girls wearing the Delta Zeta pledge pin.

Wanda Ebert, Janet Grider, Beverly Conway, Jo Parent, and Delores Kluever were the leaders of the Homecoming preparations by the Delta Zeta sorority. Homecoming highlights included: the variety show skit, "Salute to the Beareats," the beauty float, "We Idolize Our Team," the house decorations, "We're Armed for Victory," and the alumnæ tea. Miss Edith Eckhoff was the Delta Zeta's attractive Homecoming Queen candidate.

The Delta Zeta's who were prominent in campus affairs this year included: Jo Parent, Pan Hellenic Council President; Lois Vrooman, Dorm Council Treasurer; and Wanda Ebert, Vice-President of Future Teachers of America.

Rich memories of the year are the Christmas Tea for faculty members, the Christmas party at Miss Cook's, the Winter Formal, Christmas Caroling, and the Spring Formal.

It was a merry group of celebrators who took part in the Mardi Gras, Sigma Sigma Sigma style, at the informal rush party marking the beginning of Rush Week. Nineteen girls were pledged to Tri Sigma, and trained for membership by Barb Julius.

The skit, "Missouri," Sigma Sigma Sigma's takeoff on "Oklahoma," was well received at the Variety Show, and earned the second place prize. A Humor float, "Beat 'Em Bearcats," and a group of clowns were also contributed to Homecoming by the sorority.

During December, the sorority had its triennial chapter inspection by Mrs. William Atkins, Assistant Chairman of Convention, and received high honors.

Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority is very proud of its record in winning the scholarship cup for the fifth consecutive year.

Donna Sue Jones, Homecoming Queen; Carolyn Ogden, Joyce McCole, Myrna Olson, and Mary Alice Bowman, Cheerleaders; Delieve Cramer, 1957 Rose Queen; and Lovelle Hunziger, dormitory Vice-President are only a few of the Tri Sigs who represented the sorority in campus activities.

World affairs carried over to the social activities of the Tri Sigmas as the pledges named their annual sockhop "Sigma Sputnik."

KAPPA OMICRON PHI

"Here's a good buy from Kappa Phi" was the slogan cry of Kappa Omicron Phi for the first money-making project of the year. Candy-bars and aprons made by each member were sold at Christmas.

The fall semester found Alpha Chapter with nine active members. Soon six new pledges were added. These girls were: Elaine Tassell, Marilyn Leighty, Martha Landers, Mary Dale Flora, Lovell Hunziger, and Beverly Wetzel.

The weekend of December was a full one for Kappa Phi, because of the thirty-fifth anniversary of Founder's Day. In celebration of this day, the National President, Mrs. Marjorie Arch of Jeanette, Pennsylvania, and the National Founder, Miss Hettie Anthony of Maryville, were honored at a tea.

Through encouragement and helpful suggestions from sponsor, Miss Mabel Cook, and faithful and efficient president, Virginia Howe, Alpha Chapter of Kappa Omicron Phi has made this year one of the most rewarding.

COLHECON

The annual picnic welcoming prospective members was the first activity of the year for Colhecon, an organization of Home Economics students. An impressive initiation service completed the membership drive.

"Fashion Notes" was the theme of the style show held in October. Colhecon members modeled the garments which were provided by the Simplicity Pattern Company.

Homecoming added extra work as well as fun and interest, and many hours were filled with plans and preparations as the girls worked on their house decorations and parade entries.

The major money-making project of the year was selling Christmas cards.

Other events of the year included the Christmas party, and the Spring style show. The year was closed with an "Honor Day for Seniors."

DORM COUNCIL

One of the highlights of the social calendar, at least as far as Residence Hall was concerned, was the Harvest Moon Dance held in October. This event was supervised by the Dorm Council, with Lovell Hunziger as chairman of the committee.

Patsy Salmon and Norma Long were co-chairmen of the traditional Christmas ceremony at Residence Hall, "The Hanging of the Greens." Bev Murphy was chosen as the Spirit of Christmas; Myrna Olson, Queen of Misrule; and Judy Jeffries, Patsy Salmon, Jo Goeders, Mary Dale Flora, and Beverly Fletchall as Bearers of the Green.

Due to the expansion and growth of Northwest Missouri State College, a new dormitory is being constructed. The Dorm Council received the honor of "breaking the sod" for the new building.

DORM COUNSELORS

Eight upper-class girls, working under the guidance of Mrs. Luer, director of Residence Hall, and Mrs. Larson, the assistant director, help to make life in the dorm happier.

Ona Morrison, night chaperon, had the duty of blinking the well known five minute lights, closing the front door at the appointed times, and recording the black marks that girls are awarded.

Mary Lou Boeck and Sandra Bill served as ground floor counselors, Gloria McConkey was first floor counselor, Joyee Lash and Carla Rippstein had charge of second floor, and Mary Ellen Watkins and Delievee Cramer were third floor keepers.

Desk hours, operating the lights, giving noise warnings, checking rooms, coming early and staying late, are duties that are easily seen. More important than these were the friendship, advice, and aid that these girls always had on tap for anyone who needed it.

ASSOCIATION FOR CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

The Association for Childhood Education carried out an extensive, well-planned program around the theme, "Learning About Children."

A.C.E. members began the year with a scavenger hunt party for prospective members. After the formal initiation, pledging, and social tea, the group took an excursion to St. Joseph to visit the Krug School and the Mary U. Neipp School.

In the latter part of October work was begun on Homecoming projects. Marcia Williams was the overall chairman, Mary Sue Sipes had charge of the A.C.E. house decoration, Connie Turner supervised the construction of the float, and Norma Long represented the organization on the campus Homecoming Committee.

In December the group had its annual Christmas party. The first semester's activities were brought to a close in January by a talk on the eyes by Dr. Poynter, a local optometrist.

A.C.E. sponsors, Miss Chloe E. Millikan and Miss Kathryn McKee, were the hostesses at a party for new members which was the opening event of the second semester.

Other second semester highlights for the A.C.E. members were the annual operetta given for children of the community, a panel discussion concerning the parents' role in the modern family, films pertaining to education, and the Spring banquet.

After the State A.C.E. Conference held in May at St. Joseph, the Association for Childhood Education closed the year with the Senior Breakfast.

PEM CLUB

Under the direction of Margie O'Connor, president, and Ferral Foster, Vice-President and program chairman, PEM Club engaged in many activities. Attending the National Convention of AAHPER in Kansas City was one of the highlights of the year. Carol Lilly and Sarah Porter planned the Christmas party which was held in the Recreation Room of Residence Hall.

Other events of the year included: the PEM Club Coffee for alumni at Homecoming, Sunday breakfast for former members, and the Spring picnic honoring the seniors.

DANCE CLUB

Every Wednesday evening grace and rhythm were the key words as the members of Dance Club met to work on dance numbers.

Each member was allowed to contribute her own ideas on dance numbers, with no special project in mind.

Although Dance Club members worked mainly for their own enjoyment, work was done on Hawaiian and calypso numbers as well. The group also began the discussion of a dance from a Jewish synagogue and from "Slaughter on Tenth Avenue."

Among the members of Dance Club who participated in various programs during the year were Karen Kinnick and Sue Lynn, who presented "The Waltz of the Flowers" from "The Nutcracker Suite" which was given at the Christmas Assembly.

STUDENT SENATE

As co-ordinator of student activities, the Student Senate, headed by President Jerry Overton, sponsored several highlights of the 1957-1958 year. Freshman Orientation Week led the list with several students returning to the campus early to guide new members of the Senate in discussions and later in Freshman initiation.

After a period in which green beanies and signs dominated the campus, the bell rang for Walk-out Day, traditionally a closely guarded secret, and after the events of the day, the freshmen were heralded as genuine collegiates.

Other Senate activities included supervision and securing of a new bulletin board, supervision of elections, selection of a Who's Who's Committee, and a complete Constitution revision.

The Student Senate's goal for greater student participation was a challenge met by more than a fifty per cent up-surge in campus election voting.

HOMECOMING COMMITTEE

Under the leadership of Dr. John Harr, faculty advisor, Beverly Murphy, and Paul White, and other members of the committee, 1957 Homecoming plans got under way early in the school year. Plans were made to make this the largest Homecoming ever at NWMSC. Just as the preparations were being started, the flu bug hit the campus, stripping most of the participating organizations of their manpower. An emergency meeting was held and it was decided that the Supremacy Trophy would not be awarded this year, but organizations would participate on a prize money basis.

As November 2nd drew near, all groups were recovering from the attack, and a much reduced, but very spectacular, parade was held. Miss Donna Sue Jones was selected as Homecoming Queen, and reigned over the day's activities which ended with a dance attended by a capacity crowd.

INDEPENDENT CLUB

Dick Jenkins, President; Ardith Linn, Vice-President; Shirley Noelck, Secretary; Ray Fore, Treasurer; and Pat Glenn, Parliamentarian led the Independent Club into the rush of the new school year with many activities including informal teas, picnics, informal dances, and coke parties.

Homecoming was one of the highlights of the fall and many hours were spent working on the beauty float, "Sailing to Victory," under the direction of Dick Jenkins and Paul Kerber; and the humor float, "Mules Don't Have the Chance of a Snowman in Hades," directed by Mary Ellen Watkins and Ardith Linn. Ray Fore, Patty Cottrell, Beverly Elliott, and Joyce Barnes were also quite active in Homecoming plans.

The Winterland Ball in December featured a Parson Brown and a fireplace for "Conspiring," as part of the decorations. Lee Traster's Dance Combo provided music. Marlene Eberle was elected Freshman Winterland Queen at the dance. Dance chairmen were John Prichard and Joann Matthews.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

During the year, the Social Committee has functioned as a planning committee for the social events of the student body.

Among the special events of the year were the Registration Dance, and the Sadie Hawkins dance. These dances were made successful under the direction of Diana Gates. The Christmas Ball, the only all-school formal dance of the year, was supervised by Larry Sheldon. The Social Committee also worked with the Tower staff and the Student Senate in planning the Tower Dance and the all-school Spring Hop.

Monday night informal dances and after-the-game dances were especially popular this year. Cinema-scope projection gave an added attraction to the Friday Night movies.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

The major event of Alpha Psi Omega, honorary speech fraternity, was the establishment of two awards to be presented at the Honor's Day Assembly. These awards were presented to the student who had shown outstanding ability in the field of acting and to the student who had given the greatest service to the speech department. Members of the fraternity voted on the slate of candidates chosen by the head of the speech department, Dr. Ralph E. Fulsom.

In December Dr. Frank Grube, head of the English department, was initiated into the fraternity as an honorary member. As a pledge duty Dr. Grube gave a play review of "Middle of the Night," by Paddy Chayefsky.

Members of Alpha Psi who took part in various dramatic productions throughout the year were Danny DeMott, Del Smith, Marjorie Canon, Don Evans, Joan Setzer, Eileen Rittman, and Paul Heavilin in "Charley's Aunt," Joan Setzer and Carl Redmon in "Amal and the Night Visitors," and Joan Setzer, Barb Julius, Dan DeMott, Del Smith, and Carl Redmon in the Reader's theater presentation.

FORENSIC SQUAD

The Forensic Squad began the 1957-58 season by participating in the Novice Tournament at Kansas State College in November. The teams of Jim Taylor and Larry Brown, and Francis Williams and Tom Mooberry each won two of four rounds-of-debate. In December, at the Bradley University tournament in Peoria, Illinois, excellent ratings were awarded to Larry Brown in Extemp and Discussion, and Paul Heavilin and Jim Taylor in Discussion. The teams of Jim Taylor and Larry Brown, and of Roger Reith and Harlan Larison compiled a fifty per cent win record in debate. At the Southwestern College tourney at Winfield, Kansas, also in December, Paul Heavilin in Extemp, Sandra McMillan in Discussion, and Pat Murphy in Poetry Reading, were awarded ratings of excellent.

Despite snow and ice, NWMSC played host to seven colleges from three states in their own debate meet in January. Ottawa, Creighton, and Northeast Missouri State emerged as top teams at this meet.

Tournaments at the University of Nebraska, Rockhurst College, and William Jewell completed the season's activities.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Kappa Delta Pi, the national honorary fraternity in education, began the year at top strength after gaining twenty-nine new members.

The large pledge class provided panel discussions for four of the group's meetings. James Albertson, Delievee Cramer, Gene Evans, and Leonard Oliver discussed the reasons why science and math majors do not become teachers. The social science and business majors, led by Arthur Norton, evaluated the Eisenhower administration in relation to the party platform. What Kappa Delta Pi can do to stimulate a more intellectual environment on this campus was the problem examined by the English and speech majors. The teaching of the gifted child was the topic discussed by the elementary majors. Music and home economics students provided the entertainment at the Christmas party.

The Charter Day banquet in May was the final activity of the year.

PI OMEGA PI

Under the supervision of seventeen actives, five new members were initiated into Beta Chapter of Pi Omega Pi this year. Pi Omega Pi is a national honorary business fraternity, open to upper class honor students who are preparing to teach business.

Highlights of the year included: the annual Christmas Party which was held in the Lakeview Dining Room of the Student Union Building, under the direction of Mrs. Donna Thompson, and Miss Shirley Moore; and the annual field trip to Kansas City where the members visited the Government Employee's mart (GEM), IBM machines plant, and the Avon Products plant. The field trip was under the direction of Woodson Moore.

In December, Miss Ruth Meahon was initiated as an honorary member of the organization.

KAPPA PI

The year 1957 marked the second birthday of the Alpha Gamma chapter of Kappa Pi on this campus.

The events of the year for this honorary fraternity began with Homecoming, in which the chapter participated with an entry in the Jalopy Division.

Projects for the year included the development of alumni interest in membership, and the sponsoring of awards in recognition of the outstanding graduating senior and the outstanding freshman. The outstanding senior was recognized at the Honors Assembly, and the freshman was presented with an engraved palette.

The creative efforts of the members were displayed in the spring exhibit, and with the initiation of the pledges at the annual spring banquet, the activities of the year were closed.

Art enthusiasts further developed their interests through Art Club activities. Highlights of the school year were the get acquainted party at the home of Art Club sponsor Miss Olive DeLuce, the annual Christmas party, and a field trip to Kansas City.

The members of Art Club participated in Homecoming with the entry of a jalopy, which was awarded an honorable mention in the Parade Jalopy division.

Founded in September, 1916, the Art Club is the oldest departmental organization on this campus. The activities of the organization were led by Stephen Knott, President; Peg Riley, Vice-President; Leland Carter, Treasurer; and Judy Johnson, Secretary.

MATH CLUB

The Math Club, with sixteen members and four sponsors, began the year with a picnic at Roadside Park. In addition to Dr. Lafferty and Miss Dunbar, who have sponsored the group for several years, two new sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Oeschwald, helped guide the activities of the club.

Miss Dunbar was hostess for a very enjoyable Christmas party for the members of the organization.

The Math Club display for Parents' Day consisted of numerous mathematical instruments, such as a trig-tractor and a distribution curve determinator.

Regular meetings of the Math Club were devoted to discussions and talks on various phases of mathematics. With the spring picnic, the activities of the year ended.

STUDENT NEA-MSTA

SNEA-FTA, under the leadership of President Emmett Mason and sponsors Dr. Walker, Dr. Miller, and Dr. George, launched the year's program around the theme "Teaching is a Way of Living."

During the year the group sponsored an annual conference for high school FTA clubs, visited high schools to install FTA officers and explain the campus life of the college, presented an educational radio program, and organized and led an FTA departmental meeting in connection with the Northwest Missouri District Teachers meeting held each fall.

Besides these activities the group held regular meetings twice each month in which the programs consisted of panel discussions, guest speakers and films.

Delievee Cramer and Eva Lee Hess were elected to state offices at the annual FTA convention held in November at St. Louis.

FOREIGN STUDENTS

At least four students on this campus have proved that they were definitely not "suitcase students." These students were the four foreign students who attended NWMSC this year representing the countries of Iran, Mexico, Korea, and Greece.

Sara Figueroa of Mexico City, is majoring in English. She is particularly interested in world literature, and believes that the English language is not as difficult as Spanish.

Nossrat Shilati, who is studying agricultural engineering, is from Tehran, Iran.

Majoring in pre-veterinary training is Vasilios Dermitjakis, a student from Cavousilerapetras-Crete-Greece. The chosen career of Byung Zin Bai is banking. Byung Zin is from Seoul, Korea.

These international students have contributed much to campus life this year.

M. E. N. C.

Music Educators National Conference is a national organization of school music teachers, both instrumental and vocal. The emphasis in this organization is upon school teachers rather than studio teachers.

M. E. N. C. Chapter 198 of Northwest Missouri State College was led by President Peggy Bush and Secretary Charles Elliott.

The group, sponsored by Dr. John Smay, held regular meetings throughout the year, and in January some of the members attended the M. M. E. A. Convention in St. Joseph. This organization, Missouri Music Educators Association, is an affiliate of M. E. N. C. Students who attended the convention were Peggy Guthrie, Eva Lee Hess, Peggy Bush, Marjorie McClure, Mary Abmeyer, and Barbara Julius.

M. E. N. C. Chapter 198 also initiated plans for a constitution and official status for the organization so that it might grow in strength and purpose in future years.

STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Student Christian Association opened the activities of the year with a picnic at Roadside Park at which new members were welcomed into the organization.

The more formal meetings of this organized group of Protestant students centered around the theme of "The Church in Relationship to Campus and World Affairs." This theme was carried out in a number of discussion sessions led by Mary Dale Flora, and James McIntyre.

A Thanksgiving banquet, with foreign students on campus supplying the entertainment, was the next activity for Student Christian Association members. The banquet was a memorable occasion due largely to the efforts of Nossrat Shilatifard, who spoke on Mohammedanism;

Byung Bai, who gave a talk on some of the customs of Korea; Vasilios Dermitjakis, who explained the economic background of Greece; and Sara Figueroa, who demonstrated a Mexican dance.

S. C. A. members joined in the Christmas season with an evening of Christmas caroling, followed by a party at the home of Dr. Irene Mueller, one of the sponsors of the group. As was the custom, a Christmas basket was given to a needy family by the Student Christian Association.

The second semester got off to a "hot" start with a chili supper kickoff party, honoring new members.

S. C. A., in conjunction with the Newman Club, directed an impressive and successful Religious Emphasis Week which was held in March.

With the Spring Convention at the Lake of the Ozarks, and the year's end picnic, the Student Christian Association ended a well balanced program of worship and fun.

The airport picnic area was the site of the first Newman Club activity for Catholic students. John Eagle, Charles Doran, Gary Baumli, Beverly Elliott, and Charlene Rosmann planned the picnic.

A special religious meeting was the Communion breakfast held in St. Patrick's Church. Other meetings were concerned with discussions, lectures, and question-and-answer periods.

Social activities included a mixer for all Catholic students. The committee in charge of this event was Alice Koppold, Charlene Rosmann, Beverly Elliott, Charles Doran, Gary Baumli, John Eagle, Phil Maher, and Kay Martindale.

Throughout the year, the Newman Club carried out its three main purposes, religious, intellectual, and social.

WRITERS CLUB

Anyone who reads the notices posted on the main hall bulletin board in the Administration Building has observed the clever notes posted each week, announcing a meeting of Writers Club.

If the reader accepts this invitation, he will find himself in the midst of a group of would-be writers who meet at the home of Mattie M. Dykes, who is serving her first year as Professor Emeritus.

At a typical meeting of Writers Club, each member comes bearing a "manuscript." It may be a two line saying, or the revised introduction to a short story. Proudly or shyly, the bearer slips his unsigned "gem" into the manuscript box. When everyone has gathered, the box is passed around and everyone takes out something other than his own, offering to read aloud for kind but honest criticism. After all of the contributions have been read and discussed, Miss Dykes serves refreshments, and the would-be writers go home seeking inspiration to compose some more material for the manuscript box.

Members of the Northwest Missouri staff, in keeping with tradition, have successfully combined the principles of good journalism and complete news coverage for the student body, faculty, and subscribers.

The year 1957-1958 marked the eighth consecutive year in which the Northwest Missourian has been awarded first place certificates by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association at Columbia University in New York.

Each year individual members of the Northwest Missourian staff have won first place ratings in the state journalism contest sponsored by the Missouri College Newspaper Association. Excellent ratings were made by Richard Fleming in special column writing, Bill Morse and Harry Wilson in editorial writing, and Betty Wagner in advertising.

Joyce Barnes, Editor, and Miss Violette Hunter, advisor, with the aid of an enthusiastic and cooperative staff, have again produced a well-organized newspaper.
